

OUR COMMITMENT TO TE TIRITI O WAITANGI

Zayed College for Girls

At our school, we honour and uphold Te Tiriti o Waitangi as a foundation for how we learn, teach and work together.

Te Tiriti guides us to:

Recognise Māori as tangata whenua and value te reo Māori, tikanga Māori and mātauranga Māori as taonga.

Support tino rangatiratanga, enabling students, whānau and communities to have a voice in decisions that affect them.

Promote equity for all, ensuring every student has the same rights, opportunities and access to a high-quality education.

Teachers at Zayed College for Girls incorporate all students' cultural backgrounds, experiences and identities into the learning process.

Build genuine partnerships based on respect, participation and protection.

By upholding Te Tiriti, we create a learning environment where everyone belongs, everyone is valued and everyone can thrive.
